Garden Club Plans Meeting Tuesday, Feb. 21

The Berkeley Garden Club will meet Tuesday, February 21 at 1 p.m. in the John Hinkle Clubhouse. Mrs. E. J. Strohmaier, president, will conduct the business meeting. There will be a display for conservation, a specimen exchange and an exchange table at the meeting.

Otto Jeschien, conservator, will introduce the speaker, Keith Arnold of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, Forest Service, whose subject will be "Wilderness Research in Action". Looking forward to Conservation Month in March the Berkeley Garden Club is striving for a "Penny Pines Plantation". The club has four plantations now. The Berkeley Garden Club members have purchased eight parcels, one acre each, for the Nature Conservancy. The land is on the South Fork of the Eel River in Mendocino County.

Mrs. R. E. Meilo, chairman of the Herrick Memorial Hospital operations project, has announced that the club will be decorating the hospital all through March. Mrs. Kenneth Brunner, Mrs. J. T. Shaler, Mrs. L. C. Madril, Mrs. H. O. Parkinson, Mrs. George Creech and Mrs. R. E. Meilo will put in the many arrangements.

Mrs. Addison Ford, civic chairman, announced that Mrs. Otto Jeschien would place an exhibit of shells and succulents in the Berkeley Public Library in March.

Chamber Chatter

By IRENE GROVE

This is your Chamber Manager reporting back to you from the State Convention for Chamber Managers in Palo Alto. Conventions are a time of meeting with others in your own profession — of sharing mutual problems — of gaining new ideas and prospectives to carry back to your job and city. Busy days but not too busy for your primary concern of what is happening in your own city.

"Better Lighting for Albany's Business Area" — both Solano and San Pablo Avenues, a most vital issue for our city's economic program and growth, is the topic for discussion at the Albany Chamber of Commerce Membership Luncheon, Thursday, February 16. It will be held in the newly decorated dining room at the Ivy Room, 860 San Pablo. A special thank you to our Vice-Mayor, George Hein, for obtaining a speaker for the important project. All interested Albany business men and citizens are invited to attend — call the Chamber office, LA 5-1771, for reservations.

Rapid Transit and its proposed method and routing through Albany is one of the most critical problems facing our city. Despite recent newspaper reports, it is not a hopeless or closed issue. The Albany delegation headed by Mayor Joe Carlevaro and City Attorney Bob Foley was assured by the board of directors of the Rapid Transit District at their meeting Thursday, February 9, that although present engineering plans must be approved at this time, there are still approximately six months for protests to be heard and changes made. Albany's part is a small one in the total picture but its voice can be a loud and decisive one, but only if it is an informed and united one, so that we can convince the Rapid Transit Board that our city does not oppose Rapid Transit but does bitterly oppose the proposed method and route through our city.

This is National Beauty Salon Week and time to salute the many members of the beauty profession in our city. These persons, who use their creative talents and training to make the feminine population of Albany more beautiful, add to the business economy and make Albany a more pleasant place in which to live and work.

A salute also to the Boy Scouts of Albany, who celebrated their special week, February 7-13 — an organization dedicated to making men from boys to character building and training for good citizenship. Don't fail to stop by your Chamber of Commerce office to see the displays of crafts and activities from American Legion Post No. 292 sponsored, Troop 12. Albany businesses, which want to insure the economic growth and progress of their city through their participation and 1961 investment in the Albany Chamber of Commerce are: Del Courtney TV, Ellis-Olson Mortuary, Berkeley Business Service, and Purcell's.

Red Cross to Try For Make-up On Shortage in 1960

The nine Red Cross chapters of the Bay Area will conduct a "larger than usual" membership campaign in March, it was announced today by Red Cross Bay Area Council Chairman, Charles W. Fay.

Commenting on the announcement Harry R. Lange, president of the United Bay Area Crusade, said that the nine chapters' share of the recently completed Crusade campaign will fall 19 per cent short of the amount requested by Red Cross. Fay announced that to meet the operational needs for the Bay Area chapters, the Red Cross will conduct a "Balance of Need" Campaign in March for the difference.

Lange added that if the United Crusade had reached its goal of $11,250,000 the Crusade could then have allocated to the Red Cross the total amount approved for distribution by Crusade budget and allocation committees. Red Cross would then conduct one of its traditionally modest March membership campaign.

The Red Cross drive will be aimed at the estimated 35 per cent of Bay Area residents who made no 1960 gifts to the United Crusade, and long standing friends of Red Cross who have been asked each year for membership support, Fay said.

Red Cross will continue to give its fullest backing to United Crusade in the hope that in the near future United Crusade will be able to raise 100 per cent of its cooperating agency needs, "but until that happy day we must appeal to our friends in order to keep Red Cross from drastically curtailing its services," Fay added.

The play will be followed by an Olio of talented performers from both schools.

General chairmen for the evening are Mrs. James Robbins and Mrs. Al Drozda.

L. Fox, general chairman of the event and general manager of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

"DECADE OF PROGRESS", a film which portrays the highlights of some of the major construction jobs performed by the Bechtel Corporation, one of the world's foremost engineering and construction firms, will be shown at the Albany High-Twelve luncheon at the Red Barn on Friday, February 17. Excerpts from the ten most recent films from the Bechtel Film Library, "Dresden Nuclear Power", "Oil Across Sumatra", "Pipeline from Peace to the Pacific", "Grass Roots Refineries", "Bechtel in Arab Lands", "Refinery at Anacortes", and "More Power to Korea" are included in "Decade of Progress".

The local High Twelve Club invites members of the Masonic Fraternity to attend their luncheon. Ervin Clausen is program chairman of the day.

A NIGHT OUT TOGETHER, for all the family, is planned by Vista PTA on February 21. It will be a family food and fun night at the Cornell School cafeteria, beginning with a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m.

Child care will be provided at Cornell School for infants and pre-schoolers. This party night will be the only Vista PTA meeting in February.

A. S. "TONY" FETISOFF, Albany insurance representative, has earned one of his company's top production club honors. Figures released this week by Bankers Life General Agent Harry Pinney reveal that in 1961, Fetissoff issued more than $400,000 of net new insurance protection to clients in this area.

SOROPTIMIST CLUB OF ALBANY will have Dora Mae Ipsen, Distributor of Security for Investors Diversified Services, Inc., as its speaker at the noon luncheon meeting February 15, at Heather and Thistle Restaurant, 1335 Solano Avenue, Albany. Dora Mae Ipsen's subject will be: "What happens to money when it is put to work". She will be introduced by Flora Muzio, chairman of the day. President Marge Ackeret will preside.

ALBANY CHAPTER NO. 550, O.E.S., will hold its regular stated meeting this Friday, February 17, at the Albany Masonic Temple at 533 San Pablo Avenue. Worthy Matron Helen McKenzie and Worthy Patron Ruben McKenzie will preside. Associate Matron Florence Bates will be in charge of refreshments.

HUMBOLDT STATE COLLEGE, Arcata — Dave Hathaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Hathaway, 916 Masonic Avenue, Albany, has been appointed to the reporting staff of The Lumberjack, Humboldt State College campus newspaper for the spring semester.

Hathaway registered at Humboldt last fall, after graduating from Albany High School. He is preparing to enter the federal service in forestry.

Kiwanis To Hear S.F. Giants' Star

The Kiwanis Club of Albany - North Berkeley will hear baseball star, Ed Bressoud of the San Francisco Giants at their luncheon meeting of February 16. Bressoud will talk on "The Giants 1961 Baseball Season". Gary Worsham will introduce the speaker. The meeting will be held at the Red Barn Restaurant in Berkeley.

Albany Y.M.C.A. Member Drive To Open Monday

The annual Albany Y.M.C.A. Membership enrollment will be launched Monday, February 20 at noon, according to Chairman Ralph Jensen. Some 35 men will produce 200 or more supporting memberships to "Back a Boy", so that the youngsters may have an opportunity to develop coordination, skill, and strengthen their muscles.

Adults may enroll in the mixed volleyball and stretch group — ladies' Slim-nastics and men's conditioning groups. Schedules will be rearranged to meet the demand.

The Y.M.C.A. program is kept so flexible that it will meet the needs of almost everyone. The word "Christian" in its name in no sense bars a youth of some other religious profession. Our "Y" religious concept is to live the fullest of your own accepted religion.

Albany "Y" is 50 per cent self supporting through membership. The United Crusade supplying the other 50 per cent, fell 19 per cent below the operational need; therefore, the board of management believes we must enlarge the membership enrollment.

Volunteers will greatly help further the use of the present building facilities. We can use help with boys groups — girls groups — craft work in the afternoons, teen age boys groups in the evenings. If you are interested call Elmer F. Coble, Executive Secretary, at LA 5-4833.

The Albany Y.M.C.A. building is open for visiting to see groups in action and for inspection of services to the community.

Camp Fire Girls Carry on Candy Drive to Feb. 26

Doorbells continue to ring in the neighborhoods of local Camp Fire Girls as they continue their annual sale of the traditional chocolate-covered mint, which is available only during this time of the year. These Blue Birds, Camp Fire Girls, and Horizon Club members can also be found selling the colorful boxes of candy in many local banks and shopping centers.

Any resident of Albany, Berkeley, Kensington, and El Cerrito not contacted as yet by a Camp Fire Girl is urged to call the local Camp Fire office. The sale will continue through February 25.

William E. Lancot was appointed to the rank of Captain in the Albany Fire Department to be effective February 15.

Captain Lancot before entering the fire department served with the 67th Fighter Squadron of the 347 Fighter Group in the Pacific Asiatic Theater during World War II. He was discharged with a Captain's commission and entered the Fire Department as a Hoseman in April of 1951. He lives with his wife LaVearl and son William at 815 Masonic in Albany.

Housewife Gets Surprise Award Of Hawaiian Trip

"Are you kidding? Why, I've never won anything in my life!" Such was the reaction of Mrs. Terry Johnson of 5447 Huntington Street, Richmond Annex when her name was drawn as winner of a nine-day paid vacation in Hawaii.

The drawing, held in connection with the recent opening of the new Security Savings and Loan Association building at 1377 Solano Avenue in Albany, entitles the winner to a round trip flight to the Islands via United Air Lines and an all-expense vacation arranged by the Northbrae Travel Agency of Berkeley.

Jensen to Talk At Albany Legion Meeting Friday

Albany Post No. 292, The American Legion, will initiate its "Welcome Back" program Friday, February 17, in the Albany Veterans Memorial Building starting at 8 p.m. The object is to have all the old timers, who are now members and those who were members of Albany Post since its institution in 1927, come out to renew old friendships and meet the newcomers.

One of the events will be the return of Past Mayor of Albany and a charter member of the post O. C. (Club) Yenne who will, with Henry L. McDuffee, also a charter member, get together one of their clam chowder feeds such as they served when they were the first mess sergeants of the post, and the meetings were held in the old Macabee Hall on Kains Avenue in 1927 and subsequently. Other past mayors of the city, Frank C. Graeber Sr. and Jerome Blank, will be present.

Speaker of the evening will be Chief of Police Ralph M. Jensen. He will combine the old with the new and will discuss the plans for waterfront development for recreation, boat harbor and industry. Finance officer Fred McCollum will turn over to Past Commander Harold Ogden, who was the chairman of the Night of Basketball sponsored by Albany Post for the March of Dimes, $364.00, the proceeds of this event of January 28, toward the city's March of Dimes quota.

To top the evening the Albany Post Color Guard will hold open house in the rumpus room.

U.C. ITEM FOR ALBANY CUT OUT BY GOVERNOR

Assemblyman Don Mulford is up in arms over what he terms "callous indifference" on the part of Governor Brown in cutting the sum of $100,000 from University of California's budget as submitted by the regents for the coming fiscal year. This sum was included in the budget for the express purpose of reimbursing the City of Albany for use of its school facilities.

The cost of school facilities alone will be increased by approximately one-third around the first of 1962 when 500 new units will be placed in service at the Village. All of this cost falls into the lap of Albany taxpayers. Residents of the Village and other U.C. properties in the same neighborhood are in the City of Albany, but the city receives no tax money from any of these properties. In addition, the cost to the city for rendering fire, police and engineering services on the U.C. property are not compensated for in any way.

Said Mulford in commenting on the problem, "I plan to introduce a bill to provide this money for Albany. This has been an unfair and unnecessary burden on the taxpayers of that city. In deleting the item from the U.C. Regents' budget, before including their budget in the 1961-62 general budget, Governor Brown has shown a callous indifference to the taxpayers of Albany."

Tuesday night's agenda for the Albany City Council included notice from Sacramento of a meeting of the Small Craft Harbors Commission in that city February 20, at 10 a.m. Members of the (Continued on Page 2)

Take The Hunger Out Of Your Diet

Now at last, you don't have to feel hungry while dieting. If your present reducing plan leaves you "half starved" between meals, lacking the vitality you want and need, with feelings of mental and physical exhaustion . . . there's a new, easy-to-follow, low-calorie diet just for you!

Recommended by leading nutritionists, it ends the unpleasantness so often associated with dieting—and the discouraging tendency to regain lost weight. It even lets you enjoy many of the foods you like best. This new diet features a glass of whole milk at each meal . . . and provides the staying qualities that low-calorie reducing plans of the past have lacked.

The old approach was to lower the fat intake to a minimum and keep the carbohydrate level moderate. The new diet, however, is high in protein, moderate in fat and low in carbohydrates, reflecting latest nutritional thinking.

There is just no need for you to suffer through an unworkable reducing program. If you want to shed unwanted weight in a sensible, pleasant manner, write today for a free menu series that will enable you to lose up to two pounds a week. Just address East Bay Producers' Milk Council, 610 Sixteenth Street, Oakland 12, California.

charcoal braziers. Bananas, pineapples and melons are for sale in every corner. Small boys shine shoes at every other bench for one peso (8 cents) and do a good job. Little children and old crippled men and women beg. Most of them are barefoot and ragged. Pack dogs, with their ribs showing, sniff around for food. The lawns are dotted with families of Mexican Indians eating fruit, nursing babies. Most of the women wear rebosas, the long scarf that covers their head and swaddles their baby or basket of food at the same time.

Across the Zocalo (square) is the Palacio Nacional (National Palace) where the offices of the President of Mexico and other government officers are located. The walls of the main staircase are adorned with murals by Diego Rivera. The Independence Bell hangs over the central door. This bell is tolled every September 15, at 11 p.m., by the President of the Republic in re-enactment of the first time, when it was rung by the revolutionary priest, Father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, to call the people to arms. This resulted in Mexican independence.

Further around the Zocalo, a really big city square, we came to the Nacional Monte De Piedad (National Pawn Shop), founded in 1773, for the public benefit. Here the poor may get loans on personal property at a very low rate of interest. Unredeemed articles can be bought cheaply at periodical auctions.

Our taxi took us on to University City, University of Mexico. We were impressed by the modern glass and steel architecture and beautiful mosaic tile work on the buildings. It was founded in 1551 and started at the present site in 1929. The University was built to accommodate 30,000 students. At present 60,000 are registered. Building facilities are growing constantly. Many of the buildings are completely faced with mosaic, of small natural stones in all colors, depicting the history of Mexico. The stadium seats 110,000 spectators and the Olympic swimming pool is tremendous. Students from all over the world attend this University, we were told.

Altogether, we spent about ten days in Mexico City. We were eager to see the bull fights held every Sunday afternoon at 4 p.m. at the Plaza Mexico. They reminded us of our big football games, thousands of people, all in a gay mood. The Matadors, graceful as ballet dancers, mincing around the angry bull, waving their capes in graceful patterns. Finally, after the bull is dragged from the ring, the cheers and applause of the multitude echo through the enclosure. Accolades of flowers, hats, coats, all manner of objects, are tossed into the ring as the Matador and his assistants slowly walk around, acknowledging the applause with a graceful wave of his well-manicured hand. If he has been awarded the bull's ears or his tail for a good kill, he holds these objects aloft in triumph.

The Loteria Nacional (National Lottery), with drawings three times a week, was an interesting spectacle. The money derived from this lottery is used to build hospitals and for public welfare. Tickets are sold everywhere. Little children and old people peddle them along the streets and in and out of all the stores and hotels.

Another interesting Mexican sport is Fronton or, as we know it, Jai Alai. It is a very fast and dangerous game played on a 200 foot court with professional players catching and throwing a ball in cestras (wicker baskets) attached to their wrists. The game was well attended and constant betting on both teams was going on as fast as the game.

We ended our stay in Mexico City with a visit to the races at Hipodromo de las Americas. It is a very beautiful track, having a small lake with swans in the center. We decided horses and horse-players were the same the world over. The only difference being they were betting in pesos instead of dollars.

on. We rented a flower-decorated boat and were po'ed up and down many of the canals by our boatman. In dugouts were dartsling in and around with a variety of things for sale including beautiful tropical flowers (we bought black or hids), serapes, rebosas (stoles), tortillas, tamales and all kinds of beverages. Indian women, wearing men's panama hats, their black hair in long braids, expertly maneuvered their dugouts to the side of our boat to try and sell their wares. Marimba bands and steel guitar players in big sombreros were floating by in larger boats. For a few pesos, they would play love'y music as the band-boat and the listener's boat drifted side by side.

Proud grandparents (and aunts and uncles) love to hear about the family's youngest. When baby's far away, a long distance call keeps you up on the family news. Remember . . . when you're lonesome for your very own, get together by telephone. The cost is low.

Mulford Seeks State Honors for Albany Fire Dept.

State of California Assembly member Don Mulford of the 18th district has presented a resolution before the State Assembly honoring the City of Albany Fire Department for its continued fire prevention activities.

The resolution was passed unanimously by the legislature. The resolution reads in part "Resolved by the Assembly of the State of California that the members extend their sincere congratulations to the Albany Fire Department, Fire Chief Gerald D. Brown, and Captain Richard T. McSheehy, head of the Albany Fire Prevention Bureau, for their outstanding record of fire prevention."

Participating communities are judged by nationally recognized fire prevention experts on their fire loss records for the year as compared with the preceding fire year period, as well as on their fire safety program. Albany was the only city under 20,000 population that won an award in 1960 in the State of California. The fire safety programs are sponsored by the National Chambers of Commerce.

New Camp Rates Set by Berkeley Recreation Dept.

The City Council has approved the new vacation camp rates recommended by the Berkeley Recreation and Parks Department for the 1961 camp season. The new rates allow a 10 per cent discount for the early birds.

Rates for adults and children over ten years of age will cost 25 cents per day more this year. Adult transients (those staying 5 days or more) will pay 50 cents more per day. Rates for the Cazaadero Music Campers has also increased 50 cents per day. Rates for Berkeley's Tuolumne and Echo Lake family camps include three good wholesome meals per day and tent accommodations. Tents have board floors and sidings with a steel frame bed and mattress for each guest. Campers furnish their own bedding. Meals are served, family style, in the dining hall by young college students. Recreation minded students plan activities and relaxation for all age levels.

	Berk.	non-resident
Board and Lodging:	per day	per day
Adults	$4.75	$5.50
Children, 10-16	3.75	4.25
Children, 6-9	3.10	3.60
Children, 2-5	2.40	2.80
Children, under 2	1.50	1.75

Transients: Those staying five days or less at camp pay transient rates as follows: Adults and children over 10 years of age pay $6.50 per day. Children under 10 years of age pay $4.00 per day.

A 10 per cent discount will be allowed on vacations up to 14 consecutive days provided five of those days are within the first week of camp at Echo Lake or Tuolumne camps. This will encourage large families to come early while there is plenty of room.

Opening dates for Berkeley residents to make reservations will be March 1. Non-residents may register from April 3. Further information will be furnished by the Berkeley Recreation and Parks Dept., 1835 Allston Way, TH 1-0200, Ext. 98 or 99.

Holmdahl Backs Price Protection Bill in Senate

A consumer price protection bill has been introduced in the State Legislature, with Alameda County Senator John Holmdahl as co-author.

"Consumers are increasingly being subjected to deceptive and misleading merchandising practices," Senator Holmdahl said. "Fancy packaging, odd-sized containers, and confusing weight combinations annually cost consumers millions of dollars.

"Even the diligent, cost-wise buyer is hard-pressed to determine whether one purchase as compared to another represents an economy. In fact, it is difficult to compare values even as between various sizes of an identical product," Holmdahl continued.

"This bill is an initial step in the right direction — it will require that the 'per unit weight, measure or count be specified conspicuously' on containers where the contents in each container is not uniform," Senator Holmdahl concluded.

The bill will be guided in the Assembly by John Knox of Richmond.

Berkeley Players Plan Hilarious Comedy Opening

The Berkeley Community Players are planning an hilarious "opening show of the season" with Somerset Maugham's "Theatre." Larry Roberts is directing this gay comedy, which is in rehearsal now with a cast of fourteen. Opening night is planned for the evening of April 7, and following performances will be presented on April 8, 14, 15, 21 and 22 at Live Oak Little Theater.

Groups interested in sponsoring a performance on one of the above evenings should contact Violet K. Lamoree at TH 8-6773 daytime or Ralph Scott, TH 8-7927 evenings between 6 and 8 p.m. This is a wonderful way to add a surplus to the coffers of your club treasury while at the same time bringing an evening of delightful relaxation to those buying tickets.

The Berkeley Community Players are sponsored by the Berkeley Recreation and Parks Department.

Welfare Beauty Service is Part Of Beauty Week

"Beautiful service," the criterion of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, has meanings that stretch outside the beauty salon and the community. Professional cosmetologists of this area will prove it, this week, by donating their "beautiful service" to many less-fortunate members of our community. Many members of this group will visit hospitals and institutions, in a heartwarming salute to National Beauty Salon Week. Patients at Jewish Homes, Little Sisters of the Poor, School of the Deaf in Berkeley, School of the Blind in Berkeley, Berkeley Goodwill Welfare, Awards of the Court Finch Home, will receive free professional permanent waves, shampoos, and new Spring hairdos. Many of these people, hospitalized for years, may hardly recall the last time such pampering took place in their quiet lives.

"We consider this community effort to be the high point of the years," Bernice Driver, Chairman of the Institutional Welfare Program of Oakland Area unit 14, remarked. "You see eyes brim with happy tears. Chins lift higher. Many doctors and nurses report that morale reaches its best level, after the Hairdressers and Cosmetologists' visit. The effect sometimes lasts as long as the permanent wave . . . making considerable difference in the spirit of the lady who wears it. This bears out the opinions of many psychologists, who believe that an opportunity for good grooming, by gentle hands, can mark definite improvement in a patient's mental outlook."

Besides donating professional services, local members of Unit 14 will celebrate their National Beauty Salon Week with hair fashion shows, styling demonstrations, and lectures on beauty care.

Hair Fashion Forecast For Spring and Summer

Your new hair style will hug you, say hair fashion authorities of the beauty profession. The name of a new head-hugging style is the "Honey Hug", a term slightly reminiscent of the '20s and '30s, but a style designed for '61. A lot of its hug will come at the sides, but a closely fitted nape line will hug you more.
